

Abundant

ALPACA

S T A T E M E N T S

I shine brightly and proudly, without ever dimming my light.

I know who I AM and refuse to let go of any aspects of my rainbow personality

I don't give a shit about "being professional" or "polished" or "perfect". I am who I am and I am amazing.

I set new trends and standards by going FIRST without hesitation.

I lead the tribe and inspire the crowd.

I love to be seen - not in an arrogant way, but because I know, I bring good into this world, I make an impact, I have a message, and I am ready to STEP UP and be heard and seen. I don't hide.

I am not afraid of judgement or rejection, because I TRULY know about my awesomeness. You cannot bring me down.

I focus on who I'm BEING more than on what I am doing or achieving.

I bring out the best in myself and others.

I am colourful, unique, multi-passionate, crazy - and that's exactly what my biggest strength is

I have an unshakable level of certainty in every step I take, every word I say, every decision I make.

I feel abundant. I have more than enough time, friends, money, love, clients, joy, and an overflow of opportunities. I never claim there's "not enough" of anything.

I have it easy. So easy that others might raise their eyebrows, so easy that I am always lucky, so easy that everything I want to do, comes easily and naturally to me.

I can have it all.

I am limitless. Limitless in my abundance, my thinking, my ambitions.

I am unstoppable.

I have faith. I have more faith than fear, and I act from faith and in spite of fear.

I am born to be a leader, a messenger, and love to be of service, which is what brings all the abundance into my life.

I am fierce and have a big loving heart.

The more I am myself, the more money I make.

I receive love, compliments, joy, money and opportunity with arms wide open.

I am a magnet to all my desires because I live on the same vibrational level as the things I want to attract
